Case No. 24-cv-03836-TLT (KAW)

SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE MEET AND CONFER ORDER

Re: Dkt. No. 35

A settlement conference is set for February 12, 2025. In addition to the requirements set forth in the undersigned's Settlement Conference Standing Order (available at: <https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/kaw>), the parties are ordered to meet and confer and email the Court at kawsettlement@cand.uscourts.gov by January 13, 2025, 30 days prior to the settlement conference, to either confirm that they are prepared to engage in a productive settlement conference on the date scheduled or inform the Court that they require a continuance.

If a continuance is necessary, the parties shall indicate how much additional time they need and provide multiple dates¹ that work for all parties, including those individuals whose attendance is required by ¶ 4 of the Settlement Conference Standing Order. To avoid inadvertently proposing dates for which Judge Westmore is unavailable, the parties are directed review her scheduling notes, which contains her notice of unavailability (available at: <https://www.cand.uscourts.gov/kaw>).

Settlement conferences are often booked months in advance, and the undersigned understands that cases do not always proceed at the speed anticipated at the time of scheduling. If a case is not prepared to go forward as scheduled, providing advance notice increases the
